Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
For The
District of Massachusetts

To: Shaun Todd
Address: 182 Merrimac Street, Apt. #6
Newburyport, MA 01950

Docket No. 04-CR-10246

Under the terms of this sentence, the defendant has been placed on probation by the Honorable Patti B. Saris, United States District Judge for the District of Massachusetts. Your term of supervision is for a period of 3 years commencing immediately.

While on probation, the defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime and shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

If the judgment imposed a fine or a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of probation that the defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervision in accordance with any Schedule of Payments set forth in the Criminal Monetary Penalties Sheet of the judgment. In any case, the defendant should cooperate with the probation officer in meeting any financial obligations.

The defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons (supervised release cases only).

CHECK IF APPLICABLE:

☐ As a condition of supervision, you are instructed to pay a fine in the amount of $0; it shall be paid in the following manner: N/A.

☒ As a condition of supervision, you are instructed to pay restitution in the amount of $20,000 to the Clerk of the United States District Court; it shall be paid in the following manner: according to a Court-ordered repayment schedule.

☒ The defendant will be required to cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample as directed by the probation officer.

☒ The defendant shall not possess a firearm as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 921.

For offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994:

The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment or placement on probation and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed 104 tests per year, as directed by the probation officer.

☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is the order of the Court that you shall comply with the following standard conditions:

- (1) The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer;
- (2) The defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the Court or probation officer, and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
- (3) The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- (4) The defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;

71

- (5) The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training or other acceptable reasons;
- (6) The defendant shall notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment;
- (7) The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- (8) The defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- (9) The defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- (10) The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer;
- (11) The defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- (12) The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court;
- (13) As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

The special conditions ordered by the Court are as follows:

1. The defendant is to reside for a period of 4 months at the beginning of his term of supervision in a community corrections center and shall observe the rules of that facility.
2. Upon the defendant's release from a community correction center, the defendant is to serve 4 months in home detention with electronic monitoring and shall pay for the costs of the program as determined under the national contract. The defendant is responsible for returning the monitoring equipment in good condition and may be charged for replacement or repair of the equipment.
3. The defendant is to pay the balance of the restitution according to a court-ordered repayment schedule.
4. The defendant is prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the Probation Office while any financial obligations remain outstanding.
5. The defendant is to provide the Probation Office access to any requested financial information, which may be shared with the Financial Litigation Unit of the U.S. Attorney's Office.

Upon a finding of a violation of probation or supervised release, I understand that the Court may (1) revoke supervision or (2) extend the term of supervision and/or modify the conditions of supervision.

These conditions have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions, and have been provided a copy of them.
